NOT IN ACCORD WITH DEMOCRACY

Governor Kitchin Attacks Official Record of Senator Simmons.

OPENING OF HIS CAMPAIGN

Cotton Growers Will Take Action Relative to Curtailment of Crop.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Richmond, Va., February 16.—De- claring that the official record of United States Senator F. M. Simmons has not been in accord with the principles of the Democratic party, and that the influence of his record is most injurious to the people and the party, and has done much to Republi- canize public thought in North Car- olina, Governor Kitchin made his open- ing speech here to-night in his cam- paign for the seat in the Senate that he has broken his pledges and violated its principles, he is ready to meet him in a free discussion before the people and undertake to establish his con- tentions.

The Governor made a general attack on the official record of Senator Sim- mons, his whole speech being devoted to this, with incidental presentation of his own views on the issues treated, and declaring his position to be that of real Democracy. He declared that if Senator Simmons considers that he has misrepresented him in the matter of his being out of harmony with the aggressive Democracy of the age, has broken his pledges and violated its principles, he is ready to meet him in a free discussion before the people and undertake to establish his con- tentions.

He said that Senator Simmons has flaunted in the faces of the people his differences with his party and its plat- form in seeking their support—the first instance, he asserted, in the history of the people where a candidate or his advocates has used that can- didate's violations of his party's sacred principles and his repudiation of its solemn platform pledges as positive reasons for his continuation in office.

His criticism sharply Senator Sim- mons in this State. Governor Kitchin, he represented Senator Simmons as an advocate of the party's sacred prin- ciples and his repudiation of its solemn platform pledges as positive reasons for his continuation in office.
